the dust in downtown L.A. not long ago for lack of a liquor license, approached the Fiestita House, a stone's throw from the East L.A. barrio, with a plan for bands and performance art on weekend nights and is now programming artists like Johanna Went and the Party Boys in between bands like Dead Hippie, Society of the Ugly Wild Kingdom, Smog Marines and Necropolis of Love... The Woman's Building in Los Angeles recently honored Barbara T. Smith and Rachel Rosenthal for their "significant contributions" to the arts. Smith and Rosenthal received Vesta Awards for their work in performance art, presented at the second annual awards banquet. Other Vesta awards winners included performance art historian Moira Roth for her achievements in writing and filmmaker Johanna Demetrakas who made "Woman-house" and is working on a performance art movie. The awards list also included visual artists, writers, designers and media artists. Community service awards went to L.A. Councilwoman Pat Rus- sell, and to Adele Wallace and Simone Wallace who own Sisterhood Bookstore... The Shrine Auditorium in L.A. will be the site of a performance piece by Robert Wilson during the Summer Olympics. "The CIVIL WarS" is being prepared on stages around the world right now with casts of hundreds. Wilson has turned fundraiser for the occasion and the total cost for the production, including all the preparation pieces is a reported $14 M. What would you do if you could raise 14 million dollars? If we had that much money we figure we could publish HIGH PERFORMANCE for 140 years. Paul McCarthy figures he could produce 10,000 performances.

piece "The Second Coming" during January, an "erotic carnival" providing a new definition of pornography, one not pertaining to either sex." Plans include an artists' photographic book store, installations, games, tapes and performances by artists and women porno stars from 42nd St. The show is curated by Carnival Knowledge, a group of women artists who do educational shows about issues like "reproductive rights." The show will include work by both genders... Phenomena is a Los Angeles art club housed in a Mexican night club, a favorite L.A. club scene during the last few years. Jack Marquette, whose House Dog club venture hit
